

Six Cities on a Zero Carbon Journey

Six cities from across Europe came together on the Zero Carbon Cities project. Manchester City Council led the URBACT funded network, being one of the first cities to adopt a science-based carbon budget and establish a citywide stakeholder group - the Manchester Climate Change Partnership.

Please scan the QR code to take you to the Zero Carbon Cities website and find out more information

